CONTENTS

No. 1, MARCH

PAGE

Studies in pesticide residues. 3. Ronnel residues in the perirenal and omental fat of cattle following dermal application. By Janet E. McLaughlin 1

Studies on factors in beef cattle production in a subtropical environment. 3. Growth from weaning to yearling. By G. I. Alexander and A. W. Beattie 7

Effect of grain and urea supplements fed with maize forage for fattening cattle. By P. N. Thurbon and L. Winks 19

Mammals and birds of the Townsville district, north Queensland. 1. Introduction and mammals. By H. J. Lavery and P. M. Johnson 29

No. 2, JUNE

Studies of the Coccoidea. 14. The genera Aspidiotus, Diaspidiotus and Hemiberlesia in Queensland. By A. R. Brimblecombe 39

Studies of Queensland Tetranychidae. 3. Records of the genus Tetranychus. By J. J. Davis 57

Studies of Queensland Tetranychidae. 4. Eotetranychus lomandrae sp.n., a spider mite found on mat-rushes. By J. J. Davis 69

Studies of Queensland Tetranychidae. 5. Records of the genus Panonychus from Queensland, with a note on the occurrence of Panonychus citri (McGregor) in New Guinea. By J. J. Davis 73

Leaching and residual value of superphosphate and rock phosphate under high rainfall conditions. By R. C. Bruce 77

Effect of seed treatments on Brachiaria mutica and B. ruziziensis. By Deirdre McLean and B. Grof 81

No. 3, SEPTEMBER

Effects of legumes and fertilizer nitrogen on productivity of green panic swards at Gayndah, south-eastern Queensland. By W. J. Scateni 85

Processing quality of oranges grown in the Near North Coast area of Queensland. By R. P. Bowden 93

Estimation of starch in sorghum and other grains. By R. L. Roofayel 121

Comparative fatty acid composition of linseed oil produced in northern and southern Queensland. By M. J. Price 129

Reduction of banana anthracnose following hot-water treatment of the green fruit. By O. J. Burden 135

Effect of nicotine sulphate on the performance and carcass quality of growing pigs. By A. C. E. Todd and J. O. Sewell 145

Viability of seed of Brachiaria decumbens. By B. Grof 149

A wilt of papaw caused by Verticillium dahliae Kleb. By O. J. Burden 153

PAGE

Tomato transit rot control trials, 1965–66. By A. R. MITCHELL, V. N. MEURANT and J. C. JOHNSON 157

Cucurbit powdery mildew on papaw. By J. L. ALCORN 161

Nodulation and nitrogen fixation in some Desmodium species. By A. DIATLOFF 165

A note on the removal of silver from aqueous extracts of plant material. By R. L. ROOFAYEL 169

Estimation of fluoride using alizarin complexan. By R. L. ROOFAYEL 173

Type specimens of Colletotrichum gloeosporiodes var. minor and Colletotrichum acutatum. By J. H. SIMMONDS 178A

No. 4, DECEMBER

Absorption and translocation of calcium foliar sprays in relation to the incidence of blossom-end rot in tomatoes. By R. E. BARKE 179

Plant density and nitrogen studies with irrigated hybrid maize in the Lockyer Valley, Queensland. By T. DICKSON 199

Stock and scion investigations. XV. Twenty-six-year-old apple rootstock trial. By L. A. THOMAS 211

Brown spot disease of French bean caused by Pleiochaeta setosa. By K. G. PEGG .. 219

Seasonal fluctuations of hepatic vitamin A reserves in beef cattle grazing unimproved pastures. By R. J. W. GARTNER, G. I. ALEXANDER and W. P. BEWG 225

Mammals, birds and reptiles of the Warwick district, Queensland. 3. Reptiles and general conclusions. By T. H. KIRKPATRICK 235

Mammals and birds of the Townsville district, north Queensland. 2. Birds. By H. J. LAVERY 243

A dipping trial with larvae of the grape vine moth (Phalaenoides glycine Lew.). By R. A. MCLACHLAN 255
